

No Roses for Harry!

by Gene Zion

Traditional, monochromatic illustrations depict the struggle Harry has while he tries to get rid of his new sweater.

Read

Before:

Introduce the book and tell the children a little bit about it. Follow with a comment or question that is related to the story such as, If you could, what would you dress your dog up as? Encourage a discussion so the children can comment, ask questions, and express their feelings. Set the stage for listening by asking an "I wonder" statement based on the cover illustration.

- I wonder if Harry likes his rose shirt?

During:

Encourage the children to comment on the illustrations, ask questions, and predict what will happen next in the story. Children gain confidence and a sense of achievement through being able to correctly predict how a story will end. Point out "rare words" (e.g., those words that are not commonly used in every day conversation) and help the children relate the meaning in a way that makes sense to them.

Rare Words in No Roses for Harry!

- woolen: made from wool, knitted or woven
- cosy: tranquil, calm and comfortable
- snug: close-fitting, comfortable
- stitch: loop of wool

After:

Discuss the story. Ask questions...

- What did Harry get from Grandma? What did it look like?
- Why didn't Harry like his new sweater?
- What did Harry do to try and lose the sweater?
- Who helped Harry get rid of his sweater? How did the bird and Harry do that?
- When Grandma came to visit, what did the kids and Harry do?
- What did they find at the park?
- What present did Harry get from Grandma at Christmas? Did he like it?

Do

My Own Sweater

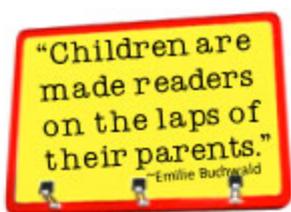

After reading the story, hand each child the My Sweater page and an assortment of yarn. Allow the children time to decorate their sweater with markers/crayons and then cut small pieces of yarn and glue them on the paper.
