

Lousy Rotten Stinkin' Grapes

by Margie Palatini

Vibrant watercolor illustrations and witty dialogue combine to tell the story of a fox, his relentless drive to gather grapes and the team of friends who try to help.

Read

Before:

Introduce the book and tell the children a little bit about it. Follow with a comment or question that is related to the story such as, Have you ever eaten grapes? Did you like them? Encourage a discussion so the children can comment, ask questions, and express their feelings. Set the stage for listening by asking an "I wonder" statement based on the cover illustration.

- I wonder if these animals are friends?

During:

Encourage the children to comment on the illustrations, ask questions, and predict what will happen next in the story. Children gain confidence and a sense of achievement through being able to correctly predict how a story will end. Point out "rare words" (e.g., those words that are not commonly used in every day conversation) and help the children relate the meaning in a way that makes sense to them.

Rare Words in Lousy Rotten Stinkin' Grapes

- tantalizing: inviting, alluring and exciting
- vine: a climbing plant that grows along a surface
- morsels: a small piece of food
- sly: cleverly skillful and cunning
- clever: showing intelligence
- thicket: the thick growth of bushes
- boost: to push somebody or something up
- dim: somewhat dark, not well lit
- brawn: strong muscles and physically strong
- thrust: to push somebody or something forcefully
- shrugged: to raise and drop shoulders briefly
- peered: to look very closely and carefully at something
- interrupted: to stop someone from speaking by making a statement
- brambles: the prickly bush with edible fruit
- spied: to secretly watch someone or something
- shyly: reserved, uncomfortable around others and timid
- unattractive: not good-looking
- fret: to worry or be irritated about someone or something

After:

Discuss the story. Ask questions...

- What did the fox want?
- Why couldn't the fox reach the grapes?
- What plan did the fox come up with? Who was the first animal that helped him?
- Did Fox's plan work? What did he think of next?
- When the porcupine was added to the plan, whose head did he stand on?
- How many animals did Fox invite to help get the grapes?
- Did Fox get the grapes after he jumped off of possum's head?
- What did the bear suggest to get the grapes? Porcupine? Beaver? Possum?
- Did the fox like their ideas? What did the Fox do instead?
- Who finally got the grapes out of the tree?

Do

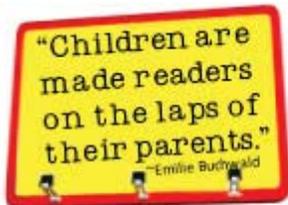

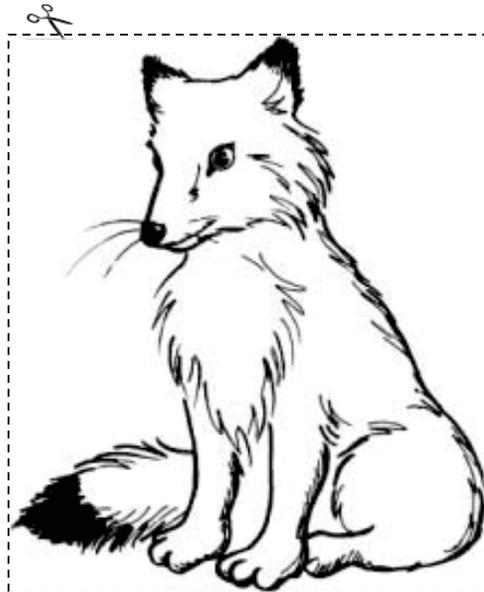

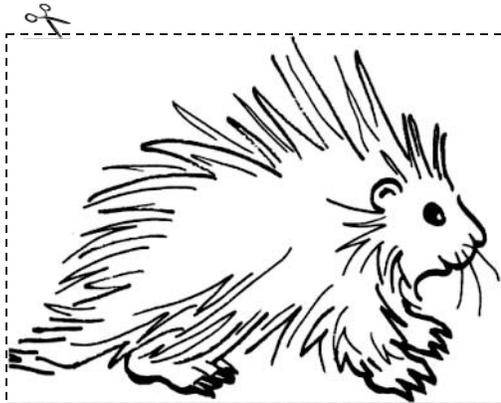

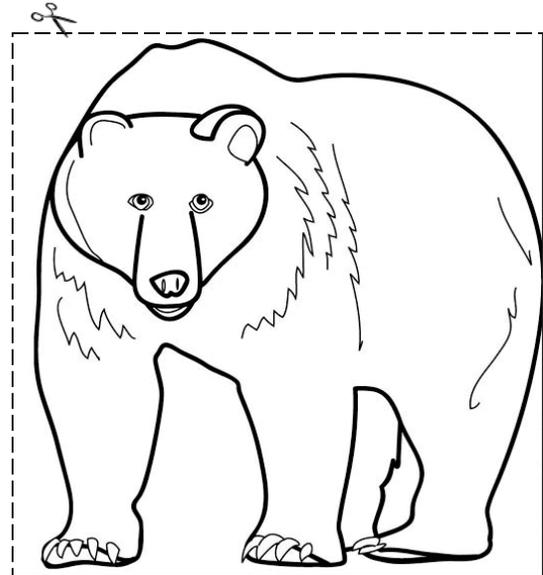

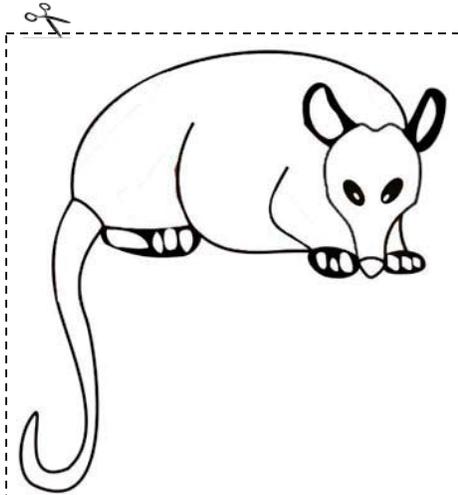

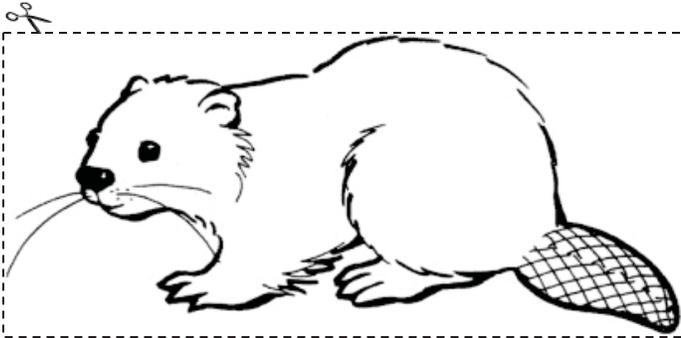

Story Sequence

You will need: What Happened Next? sheet, glue sticks, construction paper, crayons/markers and scissors

After reading the story, talk about what happened in the book. Hand out the What Happened Next? sheet to each child. Allow the students enough time to color and cut out the sequence cards. Next the children will choose a piece of construction paper and lay the squares out in correct sequence order. Once the timeline is complete, they can glue the pieces down.

My Name: _____

What Happened Next?

R.E.D. Zone
Sponsored by Pizza Hut®

www.bookitprogram.com/redzone

Visit the R.E.D. Zone for more reading-readiness printables, read-aloud tips, resources and more!